

Hugs & Kisses Bracelet

This is a fun and versatile bracelet that can be made with many different beads in a variety of sizes. Once you've learned the technique you can vary the design by your choice of crystal or pearl sizes and accent beads. By changing the size of the bead, the look and feel of the bracelet changes too, you can make it reversible by adding one finishing design on one side, and a different one on the other. This technique is the jumping off point of many other beautiful beadwork designs.
